Luxembourg – The Board of Directors of the European Financial Stability Facility (EFSF) approved today the disbursement of €1 billion to Greece, taking into account the implementation of a set of milestones agreed in April 2014.

This is the third and final tranche of the total €8.3 billion instalment approved by the Eurogroup following the conclusion of the fourth review mission of Greece's macroeconomic adjustment programme. After the present disbursement, total EFSF financial assistance for Greece will reach €141.8 billion, and €1.8 billion will remain available from the EFSF.
